OUR SAVIOR EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CONGREGATION

CHURCH CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

It is the will of our Lord Jesus Christ that his disciples should preach the gospel to the whole world (Mark 16:16, Matthew 28:18-20, Acts 1:8). That Christ's mission for his Church might be carried out according to his will, he has commanded that Christians unite in worship (Hebrews 10:24-25), practice fellowship with one another (Acts 2:42), witness to all men (Acts 1:8), help each other grow in the Word (Ephesians 4:11-14), serve the needs of all men in Christian love (Ephesians 4:7-16, Mark 10:42-44, John 13:35, Galatians 6:10), administer the Office of the Keys as his Church (John 20:21-23, Matthew 18:15-20), and maintain decency and order (1 Corinthians 14:40) in the Church.

Therefore, we, a congregation of Lutherans of the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod, do herewith, in the name of the Triune God; Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and by subscribing our names hereto, adopt the following CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS.

Our Savior Ev. Lutheran Church & School

Constitution

ARTICLE I Name

The name of this congregation shall be Our Savior Evangelical Lutheran Church, located in Grafton, Wisconsin.

ARTICLE II Articles of Faith

This congregation accepts and confesses all the canonical books of the Old and New Testaments as the inspired Word of God, and all the symbolical books of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, contained in the Book of Concord of 1580, as a correct presentation and true exposition of Christian doctrine, drawn from, and in full agreement with the Holy Scriptures; hence, no doctrine shall be taught or tolerated in this congregation which is in any way at variance with the following symbols of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, namely:

1. The Three Ecumenical Creeds - the Apostles', the Nicene, the Athanasian;
2. The Unaltered Augsburg Confession;
3. The Apology of the Unaltered Augsburg Confession;
4. The Smalcald Articles;
5. Luther's Catechisms - the Large and the Small;
6. The Formula of Concord.

And we set forth that according to this norm of doctrine and faith all controversies which may arise in this congregation shall be decided and adjusted.

In all matters of Christian faith and life the Word of God is supreme (Psalm 119:105).

ARTICLE III Church Affiliation

This congregation shall affiliate itself only with a church body that holds to all the truths of God's Word in doctrine and practice and is bound to the confession of faith as set forth in Article II, if, and as long as, such a church body exists.

ARTICLE IV Church Membership

Section 1. Classification

- A. Baptized members of the congregation are those who have been baptized into the Christian faith in the name of the Triune God (Matthew 28:18-20; Mark 16:16).
- B. Communicant members are those baptized souls who confess Jesus Christ to be their Lord and Savior and have stated their adherence to all the canonical books of the Old and New Testament, without qualification, as the only rule and norm of faith and life, and have declared their agreement with the chief parts of Christian doctrine as written in Dr. Martin Luther's Small Catechism.

Section 2. Privileges and Responsibilities

"God is love" (1 John 4:8), and his love ever moves him to bless the members of his church with physical and spiritual gifts (1 John 3:1; James 1:17). In return for all of these undeserved blessings, we love him (1 John 4:19) and show that love with the works that we do. The exercise of such love we acknowledge as both a privilege and a responsibility. Some of the privileges and responsibilities to be noted are the following:

- A. Our God has given us his Word, the one thing needful (Luke 10:42), which alone can save our souls and tell us how to live a God-pleasing life (2 Timothy 3:15-17). Consequently, members of his church will consider it a distinct privilege and a responsibility to
 - 1) Hear and receive the Word of God diligently (Luke 11:28).
 - 2) Provide and promote opportunities for Christian education (2 Peter 3:18).
 - 3) Bring up their children in the training and instruction of the Lord (Ephesians 6:4).
 - 4) Share the gospel with all people (Acts 1:8).
- B. Our God has given us two sacraments: Holy Baptism and Holy Communion, which are means that our Lord uses to bring his grace to us. Consequently, members of his church will
 - 1) Have their children baptized early in life, for "baptism now saves you also" (1 Peter 3:21).
 - 2) Frequently partake of Holy Communion (1 Corinthians 11:23-26), if they are recognized as such who can properly examine themselves (1 Corinthians 11:28). Only those in our confessional fellowship of faith are permitted to commune at our altar. (Close Communion—1 Corinthians 1:10; 2 Corinthians 6:14-15; Romans 16:17).
- C. Our God has given us the privilege and responsibility of being managers over a certain portion of his estate and assures us he will graciously bless our faithful management (2 Corinthians 9:6). Therefore members of his church will under grace
 - 1) Continually remember that all their possessions, time and abilities are really a trust from God.
 - 2) Cheerfully decide in their hearts (2 Corinthians 9:7) the portion of their possessions and time and abilities which they will regularly devote to the Lord for use in carrying out that which the congregation has made its concern, not omitting the work of the church-at-large (Matthew 28:19; 1 Corinthians 9:14; 16:2; 2 Corinthians 9:6-11; 1 Peter 4:10).
- D. Our God has implanted within us Christians the new man, who desires to live righteously (2 Corinthians 5:17; Ephesians 4:24). Consequently, members of his church will
 - 1) Not live in obvious acts of the sinful nature (Galatians 5:19-21), but lead a Christian life (Galatians 5:22-25).
 - 2) When they have erred, permit themselves to be admonished and corrected by their fellow Christians in the spirit of Matthew 18:15-18.
 - 3) Refuse to hold membership in any organization whose teachings and practices conflict with the Word of God (e.g. lodges) (John 5:23; 8:31,32; 2 Corinthians 6:14-18).

ARTICLE V Voting

Only such male communicant members of the congregation who have attained the age of 18 years shall have the right to vote (1 Cor. 14:34; 1 Tim. 2:12).

Article VI Excommunication, Removal, and Dismissal

Members excommunicated according to Matt. 18:15-20, who exclude themselves by evading Matt. 18:15-20, and who by adherence to false doctrine or by removal sever their connection with the congregation, give up all their rights in the congregation and its property.

Such members as for reasons that are justified by the Word of God ask for their dismissal shall be peaceably dismissed by the congregation. Such dismissed members relinquish all their rights in the congregation and its property.

Article VII Separation

If at any time a separation shall occur in this congregation on account of doctrine or for any other cause (which God may graciously prevent), the property of this congregation and all of its benefits shall remain with those members who

1. adhere to this constitution;
2. remain faithful to the confessions of this constitution (Article II);
3. remain with the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod so long as it also remains faithful to the aforesaid confessions.

Article VIII The Ministry

The pastorate of this congregation shall be conferred only upon such ministers or ministerial candidates as unqualifiedly and publicly profess their acceptance and adherence to Article II of this constitution; and such acceptance and adherence shall be required of them in the call or vocation extended by the congregation.

The teachers called to assist the pastor(s) and pastoral staff in the Christian training of our youth shall be in agreement with the confessional standard of the congregation (Article II) and be qualified for this field of work.

In case of a vacancy in the position of the pastoral staff or teacher, the congregation shall notify the president of the local district of the Synod for the purpose that the latter may assist in temporarily filling the vacancy and in giving his good counsel in regard to the calling of a new pastoral staff member or teacher.

Article IX Removal From Office

If a person holding an office in the congregation willfully neglects his or her duty, and upon due admonition does not amend, the church in such case has the right, and eventually the duty, to remove him or her from office and to elect or appoint another to take his or her place.

Sufficient and urgent cause for removing a member of the pastoral staff or teacher are persistent adherence to false doctrine, scandalous life, willful neglect of duty, or established inability to perform the duties of the office (1 Tim. 3:3-7; Titus 1:6-9).

Article X Books

Section 4 By Removal for Self-Exclusion

- A. Openly impenitent sinners who persistently disregard the principles of Christian life and faith in whole or in part as laid down in the Word of God and this Constitution shall be admonished in brotherly love according to Matthew 18:15-18. If, after repeated attempts, such admonition proves futile, the pastor(s) and elders have the responsibility to place the individual under church discipline (i.e. suspend him/her from the Lord's Supper) until he/she repents. The process for this church discipline has been outlined in the "Final Act of Love" procedure. If such an individual disregards this process and asks the leaders of the church to stop contacting him/her, he/she shall be removed from the church by unanimous vote in accordance with Matthew 18:15-18. Such removal by self-exclusion shall be made public to the congregation. Individuals removed by self-exclusion give up all rights in the congregation including the right to partake of the Lord's Supper, to serve as sponsor at a Lutheran baptism, and in case of death, to receive a Christian burial, and also all claims upon its property.
- B. Should a person removed for self-exclusion later express repentance of his/her sin and be willing to change, as shown by a confession of his/her wrong made in the presence of the pastor(s) and/or Elders, he/she shall again be received by unanimous vote into the congregation in the spirit of meekness and shall enjoy all the rights and privileges of membership.
- C. In all dealings with openly impenitent sinners, the gaining and not the losing of the member should at all times be the end and objective in view.

Section 5 By Excommunication

- A. Openly impenitent sinners who persistently disregard the principles of Christian life and faith in whole or in part as laid down in the Word of God and this Constitution shall be admonished in brotherly love according to Matthew 18:15-18. If, after repeated attempts, such admonition proves futile, the pastor(s) and elders have the responsibility to place the individual under church discipline (i.e. suspend him/her from the Lord's Supper) until he/she repents. The process for this church discipline has been outlined in the "Final Act of Love" procedure. If such an individual still continues to resist all admonition, refuses to meet with the congregation to deal with his/her case, or will not repent, he/she shall be excommunicated from the church by unanimous vote in accordance with Matthew 18:15-18. Such excommunication shall be made public to the congregation. ARTICLE IX Special Services

Section 1 Weddings

The wedding service is truly a joyous celebration and ceremony reaffirming the regulations, blessings, and importance of the holy estate of matrimony as instituted by our God. Because of this, wedding services will be performed by a pastor(s) for members and others who have made arrangements through our pastor(s). Because the wedding service is truly a worship service in which we focus on our God and ask for his blessings, all aspects of the service will reflect the Christ-centered character of the ceremony so that the proper emphasis might be maintained. It is therefore understood that all who officiate and lead this worship service will subscribe to Article II of this Constitution. All decisions regarding service specifics (music, dress, etc.) will be made in consultation with the pastor(s) and/or the Elders of the congregation and will always underscore the proper decorum and reverence of the Christian wedding ceremony. Every couple married in our church must first receive premarital counseling at the discretion of the pastoral staff.

Section 2 Funerals

The service of Christian burial is primarily a service of comfort for the survivors. It is a service when members of the pastoral staff share with those bereaving the comfort of everlasting life - that the deceased was truly a believing child of God and now is an heir of the eternal joys of heaven. Because of this, members of the pastoral staff will only be able to perform funerals for those about whom they can speak these personal words of comfort and forgiveness. The members of the pastoral staff will be able to perform funerals for members of our congregations and those in fellowship with us and for those people who have personally come into contact with them and have expressed such saving faith. All specific arrangements and decisions for this service of comfort will always be made in consultation with the pastoral staff and/or the Elders of the congregation.
