Pentecost 2

June 8 & 11, 2023

WORSHIP NOTES: We're glad that you're here this morning! Pentecost is the season after Jesus had fulfilled his mission and ministry and was now turning the responsibility over to his called apostles. The message of his accomplishments and the coming of the kingdom of God began to spread from Jerusalem out into the world. In a time that had just as many competing elements as ours, the gathering of believers devoted themselves to the Scriptures, to fellowship and service. So when we live as we are called to live we can stand against any and all of the strongholds of Satan. Not by our own intellect or ability, but by using the divine weapons which God has left with us--his Word and his promises. Today we see that as the storms of life come to us, Jesus gives us his promises to help us through them all.

PRAYER OF THE DAY: O God, the strength of all who trust in you, mercifully hear our prayers. Be gracious to us in our weakness and give us your strength to hold us in faith and allow us to glorify you in all the storms of life; through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

MEMBERSHIP: If you are interested in membership here at Our Savior or would like more information about our church and school, or have questions about what we believe, contact the church office at 262-377-6363.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION: Our Savior offers a wide variety of educational opportunities for the entire family. Each Sunday adults and children study the Scriptures in our Sunday School at 9:15 am. We have a Christian Elementary School that provides an excellent education from Pre-Kindergarten through 8th Grade. Contact our Principal, Nathan Schultz, for more information (262-377-7780).

BAPTISM

10:30am Service

WE GATHER FOR WORSHIP (selected verses from Psalm 104)

P: How many are your works, O LORD! In wisdom you made them all. These all look to you to give them their food at the proper time.

C: When you give it to them, they gather it up; when you open your hand, they are satisfied with good things. When you hide your face, they are terrified; when you take away their breath, they die and return to the dust.

P: When you send your Spirit, they are created, and you renew the face of the earth.

C: May the glory of the LORD endure forever!

WE CONFESS OUR SINS

P: Let us confess our sin to God, our merciful Father.

C: Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, maker of all things and judge of all people, we admit and confess our sinfulness. We have done the evil you forbid and have not done the good you demand. We have turned from each other, as we have turned from you, in our thinking, speaking and doing. We are truly sorry for these sins. Have mercy on us, kind father, because of the obedience and the sacrifice of your son, our brother, Jesus Christ. Forgive us for what is past and by the power of the Holy Spirit move us to joyful love and faithful service in the future.

WE HEAR THE GOOD NEWS

P: God, your loving Father for Jesus' sake has taken away your sin. The sacrifice of Jesus has atoned for all your wrongs. The obedience of Jesus has been credited to you as righteousness. You are God's own dear children, The Holy Spirit who dwells in you will comfort your hearts and renew your spirits and transform your lives by the power of the Gospel you have heard.

C: We believe this. We recommit ourselves to God. We worship Him.

WE HEAR THE WORD FROM THE FIRST LESSON      Jonah 2

<sup>1</sup>From inside the fish Jonah prayed to the LORD his God. <sup>2</sup>He said:

“In my distress I called to the LORD,
and he answered me.

From deep in the realm of the dead I called for help,
and you listened to my cry.

<sup>3</sup>You hurled me into the depths,
into the very heart of the seas,
and the currents swirled about me;
all your waves and breakers swept over me.

<sup>4</sup>I said, ‘I have been banished
from your sight;
yet I will look again
toward your holy temple.’

<sup>5</sup>The engulfing waters threatened me,
the deep surrounded me;
seaweed was wrapped around my head.

<sup>6</sup>To the roots of the mountains I sank down;
the earth beneath barred me in forever.

But you, LORD my God, brought my life up from the pit.

<sup>7</sup>“When my life was ebbing away,
I remembered you, LORD,
and my prayer rose to you,
to your holy temple.

<sup>8</sup>“Those who cling to worthless idols
turn away from God’s love for them.

<sup>9</sup>But I, with shouts of grateful praise,
will sacrifice to you.

What I have vowed I will make good.

I will say, ‘Salvation comes from the LORD.’ ”

<sup>10</sup>And the LORD commanded the fish, and it vomited Jonah onto dry land.

WE HEAR THE WORD FROM THE SECOND LESSON Acts 27:13–26

When a gentle south wind began to blow, they saw their opportunity; so they weighed anchor and sailed along the shore of Crete. Before very long, a wind of hurricane force, called the Northeaster, swept down from the island. The ship was caught by the storm and could not head into the wind; so we gave way to it and were driven along. As we passed to the lee of a small island called Cauda, we were hardly able to make the lifeboat secure, so the men hoisted it aboard. Then they passed ropes under the ship itself to hold it together. Because they were afraid they would run aground on the sandbars of Syrtis, they lowered the sea anchor and let the ship be driven along. We took such a violent battering from the storm that the next day they began to throw the cargo overboard. On the third day, they threw the ship’s tackle overboard with their own hands. When neither sun nor stars appeared for many days and the storm continued raging, we finally gave up all hope of being saved.

After they had gone a long time without food, Paul stood up before them and said: “Men, you should have taken my advice not to sail from Crete; then you would have spared yourselves this damage and loss. But now I urge you to keep up your courage, because not one of you will be lost; only the ship will be destroyed. Last night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve stood beside me and said, ‘Do not be afraid, Paul. You must stand trial before Caesar; and God has graciously given you the lives of all who sail with you.’ So keep up your courage, men, for I have faith in God that it will happen just as he told me. Nevertheless, we must run aground on some island.”

WE HEAR THE WORD FROM THE SECOND LESSON Mark 4:35–41

<sup>35</sup>That day when evening came, he said to his disciples, “Let us go over to the other side.”
<sup>36</sup>Leaving the crowd behind, they took him along, just as he was, in the boat. There were also other boats with him. <sup>37</sup>A furious squall came up, and the waves broke over the boat, so that it was nearly swamped. <sup>38</sup>Jesus was in the stern, sleeping on a cushion. The disciples woke him and said to him, “Teacher, don’t you care if we drown?”
<sup>39</sup>He got up, rebuked the wind and said to the waves, “Quiet! Be still!” Then the wind died down and it was completely calm.
<sup>40</sup>He said to his disciples, “Why are you so afraid? Do you still have no faith?”
<sup>41</sup>They were terrified and asked each other, “Who is this? Even the wind and the waves obey him!”

WE AFFIRM OUR FAITH

ALL: I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended into hell.

The third day he rose again from the dead.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty.

From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy Christian Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.
